LATEST NEWS FROM WARRENTON

LADIES' AID SOCIETY FORMED FIRST MEETING HELD—80-CITY NEWS—BASEBALL GAME FOR SUNDAY.

WARRENTON, Ore., May 17.—This town, being mainly a sawmill town, has, like most other places, supported by the lumber industry, a floating population. Therefore the lack of unity in public, business or social affairs is partially accredited for. However, since the the Old Oregon Mill Company, have had their plant in operation (now over 14 months), a number of their employees have made Warrenton their home and are now beginning to take an active interest in the city's welfare. In this respect the men's wives have taken the first step. Yesterday a large number of ladies met at the home of Mrs. Sam Shepherd for the purpose of organizing a ladies' aid society. Rev. Howard, the Presbyterian minister, was made temporary chairman, and business began immediately. Mrs. C. Paris was elected honorary secretary; Mrs. H. Caples, vice-president, and Mrs. Rogers president. The proceedings which followed were chiefly of a general character, detail work, committee's necessary, and other matters were left in abeyance until next meeting. A motion to adjourn having been adopted, Mrs. Shepherd invited all present to partake of the refreshments prepared for them. This afforded the members an excellent opportunity to enjoy an all round conversation on the subject then uppermost in their minds and the splendid catering of the hostess did much towards furthering the determination of the guests to make the new society a thorough success.

A letter was received by Manager Halferty, from the Rainier baseball club saying they would be unable to fulfill their engagement with the local nine next Sunday. By the same mail a challenge came to hand from Devco baseball club of Portland, who were desirous of playing Warrenton at first available opportunity. A telegram was dispatched to the latter suggesting Sunday and the following reply reached here last evening, "D. T. Halferty, Warrenton, Or., we will meet your team Sunday, May 19th at Warrenton. C. C. Cline, Devco Baseball Club, Portland." The visit of this fine amateur team should merit a good attendance. That the game will be interesting is a foregone conclusion.

Warren Lester, son of our worthy mayor, gave a birthday party to his numerous friends, last evening. Each part of the program was gone through in an exquisite manner, the guests entering into the spirit of the occasion with a zest and zeal that spoke well for the vitality of our rising generation.

James Harrell and his son Hollis have leased a farm near Beaverton and yesterday were busy shipping their live stock, machinery, furniture and other effects for transportation to their new home.

Miss Rose Kindred has been here visiting her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren, who have for some time been the guests of Mrs. D. H. Warren left this city today.

POLICE FORCE SHAKEN UP

MAYOR WISE ISSUES ORDER TO CLOSE DANCE HALLS OR HE WILL SUSPEND THE ENTIRE FORCE.

As a result of conditions disclosed by the arrest of C. F. Wise, proprietor of the Waldorf dance hall, early yesterday morning, on the charge of keeping two minor girls in a saloon and refusing to surrender the same to a police officer on request, Mayor Wise issued the following order last night to Chief of Police Gammal and the other officers:

Astoria, Ore., May 17, 1907.
The Chief of Police, Charles Gammal, and Fred Oberg, Thomas Linville, A. Thompson, J. Stark, E. H. Houghton, George Coffman, C. Hansen, R. Twombly and C. Dubeau, police officers of the City of Astoria:

About two months ago I sent a message to the common council calling attention to the awful condition existing in the places known as dance halls and I issued a written order to the effect that such places be closed.

Thus far for some reason my order has not been carried out. Today still further crimes are reported from one of those places, and for the second time I order you, and each of you to close all dance halls.

If you fail to carry out my instructions I will order the suspension of each and every police officer, thus guilty, and shall ask the honorable council to sustain me in such suspensions. Respectfully,

HERMAN WISE,

Mayor.

Mayor Wise stated to the Astorian last evening that unless the order is obeyed he will suspend the entire force and ask the council to sustain him in the position he has taken in the matter. The Mayor was not quite sure as to amount of notice to be given the police before the suspension could be placed in operation and brought before the council, but he was sure that unless the police took some action the matter would be brought before that body as soon as possible.

City Attorney Abercrombie voiced the opinion that under the charter section 40 and an amendment to the same, the Mayor could suspend the police force without notice and the matter could be brought to the attention of the council at its next regular meeting, which will be held on Monday evening, if the Mayor so desires.

That the police department has a movement of some kind on foot was brought to light by the second arrest of C. F. Wise about 8 o'clock last evening. He was arrested by Officer Linville, and charged with running a dance hall. Mr. Wise deposited the usual bail required on such arrests, $50 and was allowed his freedom.

When seen a little later in the evening Mr. Wise in discussing the matter said that when arresting him the officer remarked that he would arrest him (Wise) every night that he found the Waldorf running until he had orders from his superior officers to desist. Mr. Wise further remarked that such being the case he will make a fight in police court this afternoon.

When asked in regard to the statement of Mr. Wise, Officer Linville said that he did make the remark and proposed to carry it out. He stated further that he was acting on the orders of his superiors.

The start of the whole affair was caused by Chief Gammal receiving from Ballard, Wash., a notification that two girls under age were thought to be in a dance hall in Astoria and were wanted by their parents. From the description given they were located in the Waldorf. One was arrested and taken to the city jail and the other one not being present Proprietor Wise was requested to surrender her to the officers. This he refused to do and was himself arrested and later released on $20 bail. His case came up in police court yesterday and he secured a continuance until Monday.

The girl arrested went under the name of Alice Young and the other as Viola Young. The latter has disappeared and the police have been unable to locate her whereabouts but are confident she has not left the city. Proprietor Wise holds statements signed by the two girls saying that they sought employment without being solicited or asked but entered the Waldorf of their own free will. They signed their names as Alice and Viola Young aged 23 and 21, respectively. The names and ages given in the dispatch received by Chief Gammal were Emma Johnson aged 17, the one in jail and Lena Smith, aged 16. The girls are said to have worked in a dance hall in Everett, Wash., for about two weeks before coming to Astoria.

The police refused all admittance to the girl in jail and refused to talk on the situation, any further than was absolutely necessary.
